

THE COLORADO HORROR.
Homes About the Mouth of the Pit-Faced Mine.
DENVER, Colo., Jan. 28.—The inquest on the victims of the mining disaster was continued until a few minutes after midnight when an adjournment was taken until Monday. The evidence given showed that the air provided was five to six times the quantity required by law, and that the explosion occurred while the traffic of chambers eighteen, which was full of gas, was being repaired. The two remaining bodies, making a total of fifty-nine, were brought up Sunday. Both presented a ghastly sight. The frame building for the funeral service on which forty men had been working for two days was completed early in the morning and the bodies placed in it. No date has been fixed for the funeral. There has been no renewal of excitement although fears are expressed that an attempt may yet be made to lynch mine boss (Hines).

The Railroad War.
CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—The petition of the Burlington road, regarding the tripartite alliance, has been the one absorbing subject of discussion among railroad men and stock brokers, and the usual Sabash quiet in such circles has been broken by numerous conferences and the sending and receiving of dispatches from New York and other points upon the subject. As stated in these dispatches it was generally understood the Burlington had decided to become a party to the alliance, and a positive statement to that effect has been telegraphed to prominent railroad men in New York by an unusually reliable authority than President Cable, of the Rock Island. On the other hand it is positively stated that early Sunday morning a dispatch from General Manager Potter was received in this city to the following effect: "The one truth whatever in the statement that a settlement of the difficulty has been agreed upon, or that there is any immediate prospect of the roads interested coming to an understanding." President Cable, of the Rock Island, left for the East Saturday night, and Mr. Potter is in Iowa and will not return for a week, and another immediate peace conference is therefore impossible.

The Senate Private Land Claims Bill.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The only special order on the Senate calendar is the bill for ascertaining and settling private land claims in certain states and Territories. This will probably come up Monday at 10 o'clock. It was arranged on Friday, however, that Mr. Sherman's resolution relating to the political rights at Nevada, Va., and Copiah, Miss., should be considered in the morning hour. Mr. Mahone has a speech prepared on this subject, and the general understanding is that he will be followed by Senators on both sides of the Chamber. Mr. Lammie is reported, will take the floor after the Virginia Senator. Mr. Vest is also expected to speak specially in regard to the Mississippi matter. Should there be a fair prospect of finishing the debate to-morrow, the special order will be laid aside temporarily. Otherwise the consideration of the resolution may take several days to dispose of it after routine business.

The Situation in Egypt.
LONDON, Jan. 28.—General Gordon has telegraphed to Colonel Cotterton directing him to send an emissary from Khartoum to the Pasha of Egypt, Sir Mahdi, and to suspend any active operations until he receives further orders from General Gordon, who is the only one exposed to the definite action. General Gordon brought with him £50,000 and has since received £20,000. Some important Bedouin tribes near Bichach have yielded to persuasion and have surrendered at Berlin. The Rothschilds have loaned to the Khedive £500,000 for six months at six per cent.

The Earl and His Tenants.
SUSSEX, Eng., Jan. 28.—The negotiations by the Earl of Devon and his tenants in County Limerick, Ireland, have failed through. Of the 800 tenants to whom his circular was addressed, 300 offered to purchase their holdings at from twelve to ten years value. These offers were refused by the Earl because he believed they were instigated by the Land League agitators.

Worn, Weary, and Wretched.
"As weak as a cat" is an expression frequently used by debilitated sufferers who are trying to tell how forlorn they feel. It is an incorrect expression, for a cat is one of the most agile and vigorous animals in existence. It would be more correct to say, "as weak as a limp old dog," for that gives the idea of utter inability to hold one's self up. The weary person who feels thus is generally worn, worried, woe-filled, and wretched. Sometimes it is a case of overwork, and sometimes of imperfect nourishment. The blood in the system of a person who is "as weak as a cat" is in a wretchedly thin condition. It needs iron, to impart richness, redness, and strength. This is to be had by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, the only safe and proper preparation of iron in connection with gentle and powerful tonics. The physician and the druggist can tell the worn and weary how valuable a remedy BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been found in actual every-day use.
